Quiet escape just 5km from the inner city- perfect place to raise a family

Bardon is a perfect place to raise your family due to a number of private and independent schools that surround the area. Located just 5km from Brisbane CBD, Bardon has become one of the most desirable inner-city suburbs and the choice of many of Queensland's most successful executives.

Bardon is a quaint, leafy suburb close to the city. The Queensland houses and narrow streets give the suburb an old-world charm, and there are plenty of trees and greenery to lend this suburb a peaceful vibe.

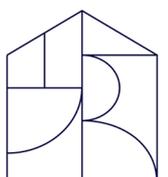

The area is renowned for its steep hillsides dotted with lattice-fronted Queenslanders providing a leafy outlook and spectacular views.

The Lifestyles of people in Bardon

Bardon has all of the benefits of living in the city, without the noise, hustle and bustle and grittiness. Its streets are mostly quiet and tree lined, featuring lovely cottages and renovated old Brisbane dames. There is a park entrance on almost every street. It's close enough to the city for a quick commute and the public transport system is excellent from here.

The Types of property in Bardon

The vast majority of properties in Bardon are free standing homes. This includes a mix of architectural styles including character Queenslanders, post-war cottages, and smaller numbers of contemporary houses. Many of these homes have been renovated to suit the high flying executives or families, however there are still some great pockets that are yet to be developed and tailored to your specific requirements.
